REFLECTION

'Courage! It is I. Do not be afraid!'

Matthew's Gospel may be particularly suited to our time of storms in the Church. In his Gospel, Matthew's focus is on Jesus forming the disciples into a little community, the core of the young Church to be. So, just as Jesus came in the midst of the storm to reassure his disciples, so he is there for the infant Church that is frightened by the challenges it faces, torn by desertions and afraid of going down in a hostile sea. We are urged to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus as we face the 'head-winds' today
