UT VITAM HABEANT CONFERENCE 2017-

*Sunday, 10th September - Thursday, 14th September 2017, Dun Geagan Centre,

You are cordially invited to this Conference being held in memory of William Main, whose generous work at the Benedictine Priory, Montreal, Canada and throughout Ireland was a door for many to the tradition of meditation in the Christian tradition. Ballinskelligs was chosen as the venue for this Conference because of the close family ties of John Main OSB and William Main to Iveragh, Co. Kerry.

CONFERENCE SPEAKERS- Fr. Paul Geraghty OSB, Director Spiritual Services, The Children's Hospital Montreal, Canada. Paul lived and worked with John Main OSB at the Benedictine Priory, Montreal on the contemporary renewal of meditation in the Christian tradition and keeps the spirit of the Priory alive in Canada.

* Patricia Casey, Professor of Psychiatry UCD, Consultant Psychiatrist, Mater Hospital Dublin. Patricia is a leading academic and well known for her promotion of mental health awareness.

* Sr. Consilio Fitzgerald, Sr. Consilio has worked for over 40 years in the area of addiction through centers throughout Ireland. The practice of meditation is an integral part of her recovery approach.

Conference cost: €85 for the conference including conference dinner on Wednesday, 13th September.

Enquiries: James Sweetman 087.275.8353 james@christian-meditation.org.

REFLECTION

On the way to Calvary, Jesus was given help and support by someone who will be remembered forever, Simon. We too can be offered help in very unexpected ways. It is important to recognize the love intertwined in support that is offered to us. It is good to accept help and support in love, even it comes from a place that we may not have chosen.

We ask God to help us help others who are asked to carry a burden in life. We can never be too shy to ask those near to us how we can help them carry the burdens of their lives.
