Each occasion we glimpse them

Each occasion we glimpse them, that turn of a head, that smile, their walk, their sense of humour, each time the pain we feel in our hearts.

In time, though, through the windows of our tears we will see them and smile.

In time we will let go of sorrow.

In time beauty, music and remembered places will bring solace not pain.

In your time, God of all time, may what we have sown in pain be reaped in joy.

November, Month of the Dead

Praying Sunday Mass online

As we gather at home for our Sunday Mass celebrations online, some suggestions that might help our prayer-time: Create a sacred space where you will sit to attend Mass e.g. using a crucifix or candle or icon, just like you might do if preparing for a house Mass. Invite family members to name a prayer intention that everyone will pray for during the Mass. Stand to hear the Gospel or to join in praying the Our Father, just like you would in church. We are reminded of the words of Jesus - 'Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst' – We remember that Jesus Christ is present in our homes as we pray at Mass together.

November – a time to remember

Online on Monday nights, 16th Nov, 8.00 p.m. – 8.30 p.m., Martina Lehane Sheehan, Fr Jim Cogley and Elizabeth Garry Brosnan will invite us to find hope as we journey through the month of November. Each night will invite us into a time of reflection, prayer and music, offering us a chance to rest and pray as we remember our loved ones who are with God, as we pray with our sorrows and find ways of living with grief and loss.
