Seek and you will find!

Like the young man in our gospel today we too may feel that there must be something more to the living of our faith. We can experience restlessness which makes us ask questions of ourselves, of others, of God. If we do feel such restlessness from time to time, it is a sign that we have remained open to the Lord's call to us. People who are open to God's call will always be seekers. They will always be looking beyond where they are at any particular time. People of faith never cease to ask probing questions.
