Scoil Náisiúnta Cillín Liath are celebrating their 50th Anniversary on Saturday 28th October 2023. We extend a warm welcome to past pupils, staff, family & friends. We will begin our celebration with a church service at 3pm in Our Lady of the Valley Church Cillín Liath, followed by a teacht le chéile in the school where there will be an opportunity to catch up with classmates, share many fond memories, view photos and roll books along with refreshments. Later that night we invite you to join us in the Inny Tavern to dance the night away in the company of friends old and new.

Illustrated talk on Tom Crean Antarctic Explorer by Author Michael Smith in Cahersiveen library on October 12th at 7pm.

For the month of October, office hours are Tuesdays and Wednesday mornings 10am to 1pm

Today's parable invites us to turn to Christ again. It urges us not to reject Christ in our lives simply because we dislike the challenge of his message. He is the keystone who establishes and maintains our relationship with God.
