“Namaste!”

There is a beautiful practice in India of using the phrase ‘Namaste’ when you greet someone. It literally means, the Divine in me greets the Divine in you. Usually, this greeting is accompanied by a deep bow towards the other person. Words are one thing, but can we live this? At the heart of the mystery of today's gospel is the radical call to be Christ to others and to see Christ in others. We do this through acts of compassion and mercy.
