Come and See!

The most reliable way of coming to God is to journey with him, to follow his invitation to 'Come and See'. The disciples were privileged to share the day-to-day experience of being with Jesus. They saw his miracles and his long nights in prayer to his Father. They also saw him struggle with the human condition, hunger and thirst, grief at the death of his friend Lazarus, the attempts by the Pharisees to catch him out, the suffering he endured in his Passion, leading to his cruel death. It was through this experience of seeing Jesus that they grew in the likeness of God. We too can grow in the likeness of God if we accept his invitation to 'Come and See'.
