Confirmation 2026

We warmly welcome the Confirmation candidates from Waterville National School who join us at our Sunday Mass this weekend. It is a joy to have them take part in our celebration, and we hold them in our prayers as they continue their preparation for this important sacrament. We also give thanks for their families, teachers, and all who accompany and support them on their journey of faith and life.

 A Special Invitation *****

As we journey into the sacred days of Holy Week and the Easter Triduum, we warmly invite all to come together in prayer as parish and people. These are the most blessed days of our Church year, where we walk with Christ through His Passion, Death, and Resurrection. In gathering to pray, we deepen our faith, support one another, and renew the hope that Easter brings. May these days be a time of grace, reflection, and unity for us all as we celebrate the great mystery of our salvation.
